

2009 Cliff Edge Riesling

Reviews

So beautifully balanced in its mouthfeel, it's easy to overlook the inherent complexity; apple, lime, pear and mineral all take turns to strut their stuff, the finish long and complete.

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion 2011

Exciting and racy, this is a wine that will live happily into the medium-term. Peach, lime zest and preserved lemon flavours sit comfortably amid ultra-fine minerality and a zesty, fresh finish. 94 Points

Tyson Stelzer, Wine Business Monthly, April 2010

This pale green wine is enticing even to the eye and the followup aromas of citrus blossom and juicy green apple have the tastebuds tingling in anticipation. With explosions of bright lime, touches of floral spice and a steely mineral backbone, the breadth of the body is exciting. Finishing long and lean, it is a real winner. 8.5/10

Geelong Advertiser, Top Drops, Phillip Stubbs, 9/10/2010

A blend of Western Victoria vineyard sources, this has plenty of spicy apple and lime citrus fragrance on the nose and a little honeysuckle creeping in too. The palate's built on immensley spicy lime flavour, with some chalky notes and a bit of grip to close.
