

'BREWED WITH A FERVENT REBELLION
AGAINST MASS-PRODUCED BEERS'
(oh, & malt, hops, yeast...)

Ekim Brewing Co: 'Berserker'

Style: Amber IPA ABV: 7.2%

Berserkers were Germanic warriors who fought with an uncontrollable, trance-like ferocity. Our amber IPA is inspired by this passion, but with the additional reassurance of it having rarely invoked a desire in drinkers to partake in a bloodthirsty rampage...hardly ever*. This is a big beer. It pours a deep, radiant amber with a decent head. The nose reveals floral and tropical fruit aromas from the Mosaic dry-hopping, and roast and toffee notes from a complex malt profile. The taste presents a solid bitterness; however, the malt backbone and late in the boil/dry-hop additions balance this with a rich caramel/burnt sugar sweetness and elevating citrus and tropical fruit notes.

Ekim's 'Berserker': more likely to just inspire you to just drink another...than launch into a homicidal frenzy.*
